PARTING AT A WINE-SHOP IN NAN-KING

A Wind, bringing willow-cotton, sweetens the shop, and a girl from Wu, pouring wine, urges me to share it With my comrades of the city who are here to see me off;
And as each of them drains his cup,
I say to him in parting,
Oh, go ask this river running to the east
If it can travel farther than a friend's love!

Li Po
(from The Jade Mountain '1929) written in 700 A.D.

There shall never be another season of silence until women have the same rights men have on this green earth.

Dream on...
Aerosmith

Wherever a man goes, men will pressure him and paw him with their duty, institutions, and if they can, constrain him to belong to their desperate odd-fellow society.

-Thoreau

Religion... is the opium of the people.

Karl Marx

Well, they tell me that I can't use the quotation that I wanted—something about copyright violations. It was an interesting quote from a poem by John Lennon about a man and his plug-in pet bird. I tend to favor wind-up toy terriers, myself...

The truth is that life is delicious, charming, frightful, sweet, bitter, and that is everything.

Anatole France

Debbie Cort

Love is friendship that has caught fire. It is quiet understanding, mutual confidence, sharing and forgiving. It is loyalty through good and bad times. It settles for less than perfection and makes allowances for human weaknesses. Love is content with the present it hopes for the future, and it doesn't brood over the past. It's the day-in and day-out chronicle of irritations, problems, compromises, small disappointments, big victories, and love in your life, it can make up for a great many things you lack. If you don't have it, no matter what else there is, it's not enough.

Marianne Scully

The chill of winter,
I thought would never go I condemned the coldness that set upon us
The springtime of my loving,
The third I am to know
You gave me warmth,
So little I felt before.
The summer of my smiles,
Flee from me the ghost of gloom.
These are the seasons of my emotions And like the wind they rise and fall.
But without you they would not have come at all.

Society,
So much unseen power and force.
It can take away good things.
I didn't let it.
I beat it, I have won.
Society,
Why let it change the lives of happy people?

Now I dream of distant places where I Don't know now, but it's a destiny if It's the rich life, I don't want it—Happiness ain't always Material things I want To be far from here so Should I up and fly away fancy free!!!
 Nobody can change my mind I'm screaming out this word for me DESTINY it's Calling me... I want destiny it's the Place for me give me a Simple life let me be Free let me be me gonna Search this world until I find my destiny if I were you I'd change my mind And start living for me in this life.

Steph Forbes

In this world there's much confusion I try to do what is right for me but No one sees the way I see and then I Try to please them so But how far can this Pleasing go sometimes I cry 'cause I'm confused is this a fact of being used You just can't please the world and Yourself you gotta start doing what Is right for you...
 'Cause life is being Happy yourself it's hard to find a person Like you you're one of a kind people will cry if rain or sun try to please all and you've pleased none.

Peeking
 Maybe with ear only But if to see more than Old women drinking tea
 My friend
 You are not so blind
 So
 Follow me safely
 Ride away time
 Catch me if you can
 And
 All is well
 Four-fingered gentlemen
 Who cry at the sight of Five-fingered gentlemen
 Who cry at the sight of Six

And you Having ten Still cry
 So
 Give me no hands Love me still
 I will then want them
 And Cry for them
 Yet
 We need to touch
 More then fingers

Still round the corner there may wait
A new road or a secret gate;
And though I oft have passed them by A day will come at last when I Shall take the hidden paths that run West of the moon, East of the Sun.

- J.R.R. Tolkien -

Like the leaves that fall from a tree, all things are impermanent, nothing endures; there is always change and death. Have you ever noticed a tree standing naked against the sky, how beautiful it is? All its branches are outlined, and in its nakedness there is a poem, there is a song.
Every leaf is gone and it is waiting for the Spring.
When the Spring comes it again fills the tree with the music of many leaves, which in due season, fall and are blown away; and that is the way of life.

- J. Krishnamurti -

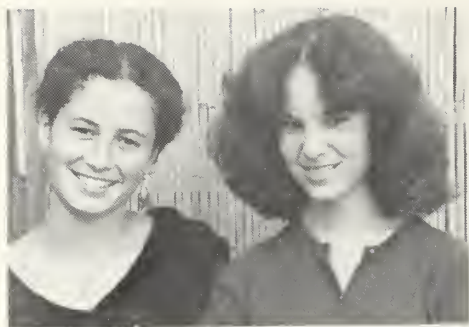

A! Elbereth Gilthoniel!
Silivren penya mîriel!
O menel aglar elenath Gilthoniel, A! Elbereth!
We still remember, we who dwell
In this far land beneath the trees
The starlight on the Western Seas

- J.R.R. Tolkien -

A PHILOSOPHY OF LIFE

We know full well
That human life
Is but a tangled web.
Why must joy and grief
Be ever mingled,
And bitter
Come with sweet?

Only those Who dare to drink
And sing with carefree heart
Can know
How best to drain
The cup of life
And leave the bitter dregs.

All that you touch
 All that you see
 All that you taste
 All you feel
 All that you love
 All that you hate
 All you distrust
 All that you save All that you give
 All that you deal
 All that you buy Beg, borrow or steal
 All you create
 All you destroy
 All that you do
 All that you say
 All that you eat everyone you meet
 All that you slight everyone you fight
 All that is now
 All that is gone
 All that's to come and everything under the sun is in tune but the sun is eclipsed by the moon.

The people are hungry:
 It is because those in authority eat up too much in taxes That the people are hungry.
 The people are difficult to govern:
 It is because those in authority are too fond of action
 That the people are difficult to govern.
 The people treat death lightly:
 It is because the people set too much store by life That they treat death lightly.
 It is just because one has no use for life that one is wiser than the man who values life.

Success is simply a matter of luck. Ask any failure. Earl Wilson

Memories of yesterday
Hazy distant dreams
Ever moving circles
Ripples on life's stream

Echoes of the here and now Shadows of the mind
Fading into bygone days
Gently all entwined

This is the time to blossom forth
To share and strive and grow Reaching out toward one another To experience, to find to know ....

To briefly fly these moments From child to adult times the pathway to tomorrow In lifes ascending climb.

The day is cold, and dark, and dreary;
It rains, and the wind is never weary;
The vine still clings to the mouldering wall,
But at every gust the dead leaves fall,
And the day is dark and dreary.

Be still, sad heart! and cease repining;
Behind the clouds is the sun still shining;
Thy fate is the common fate of all,
Into each life some rain must fall,
Some days must be dark and dreary.

H.W. Longfellow

Listen! you hear the grating roar
Of pebbles which the waves draw back and fling,
At their return, up the high stand.
Begin and cease, and then again begin,
With tremulous cadence slow, and bring The eternal note of sadness in.
